Tango comes home October 17, 2025.

My name is Tango and I was born on August 9, 2025. I now live in Huntington Beach, CA with my raisers Ed and Elizabeth. I have 2 dogs in my house, Georgia and Josie. They have welcomed me with open paws. Josie goes in for training in 3 weeks so she is trying to help me learn as much as I can while she is here.

First Week 10/17 - 10/24

My first week was very busy. I don't get to go many places yet, but I get to go to school, which is pretty cool. The students got all quiet when I fell asleep. I also get to help in the office. Everyone just loves me.

Thank you to my
amazing sponsor
Sepulveda Building
Material for making this journey possible.
